

PUBLIC PIANOS IN DOUBLE OCCUPANCY

Montréal, July 26, 2017 – From 24 to 27 August, JMC will observe the 4 o'clock mark in music at the public pianos, with an open-air and completely free programming taking place at the placottoir located at the junction of Henri-Julien street and Mont-Royal Avenue East.

Exceptionally as part of this programming, twin pianos will be offered to skilled pianists to make the streets resound with a repertoire made up of favorite works for piano four-hands... and even eight-hands!

This project is also a unique chance for JMC to make its twin vocation shine: to make classical music accessible to the widest audience possible and to promote young and talented canadian musicians. JMC has prepared a complete and free programming, for a hot and lively summer at JMC House!
